Why use an agency to find your human resources staff?

In addition to qualifications and relevant experience, your HR professionals must possess a complex mix of warmth, intuition, organisation and strength of character that a talented recruiter will uncover. These key individuals will organise and manage the recruitment, training, evaluation, remuneration and development of your most valuable asset – your people – and will have a direct influence on the culture and environment that you have created.

Why use Tay?

Since its foundation in January 1999, Tay has not set up a specialist HR function, yet has developed a reputation as a successful recruiter for the HR profession. Many agencies can find you applicants with the relevant qualifications and experience. We distinguish ourselves by identifying latent talents, motivations and ambitions. This proves consistently crucial when recruiting for such influential roles.
